WHY?
Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

WHAT?
The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:
- Social Security Number and Account Balance(s)
- Payment History and Credit History
- Transaction History and Loss History

HOW?
All financial companies need to share customers’ personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers’ personal information; the reasons Schools FCU chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. We also maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards.

If you are a California resident, California state law gives you additional rights to limit information sharing even if such sharing is otherwise permitted under federal law. With respect to California residents, Schools Federal Credit Union allows you to limit our sharing your personal information under a joint marketing agreement with joint marketing partners.

If you are a California resident, we have enclosed a form entitled “Important Privacy Choices for Consumers” which includes details on how you can further limit our information sharing under California law.
